Discover The DAPS Difference

You think in COLOR. You even dream in COLOR.
So, why do your projects look like this?

Monotone does not clarify complex information

Monotone does not hold your attention.

Monotone is substandard for presentations.

Monotone is hard to read

Let DAPS turn your thoughts into effective reality by producing COLOR for your project. Now . . . You decide!

Color makes complex information easier to understand

Color increases motivation and participation

Color improves comprehension

Color reduces errors on forms and questionnaires

Your project will benefit from DAPS COLOR by:

- Creating a professional look to your project
- Increasing the readers attention by 82%.
- Increasing comprehension and retention by 73%.

Choose DAPS for better pricing and finer quality!

DAPS has the competitive edge for providing the best in quality color copies at a price lower than our competition. Our price for color copies has historically been the best price available to the federal government and in FY03, DAPS has reduced our unit price even more. Our research indicates that producing color copies on your desktop printer will cost you twice as much compared to sending the job to DAPS. DAPS continues to invest in the best technology available for our production shops. Your work is run not just on a color copier but on a digital color press. DAPS gives you the finest color output available for your project.

Providing Document Solutions Worldwide

DAPS has over 150 staffed facilities in the United States, Europe, the Pacific, and the Middle East. Our facilities are all digitally connected and function in concert with our customers' needs. With our new DAPS Online, you can order and submit a work order to any plant from your desktop, from anywhere in the world. Your job will be ready at a facility convenient to you or shipped/delivered to your location. DAPS is the federal expert on distribute and print and destination printing. DAPS continues to provide savings to the federal government while providing better document solutions.

DAPS: Your DOD Business Partner

DAPS is a federal agency whose only mission is to provide support solutions to our customers. "We exist for the convenience of our customers." While others have come and gone, DAPS has remained the established provider of document services since 1949. We are an agency that is knowledgeable about both physical and IT security issues. Our trained equipment operators hold security clearances. As a federal entity, we understand your federal purchasing processes and support all forms of government payment including your Government Purchase Card (GPC). Daps is the best customer service oriented organization to provide you with a solution.

Automated Document Solutions

The US Army at Ft. Leonardwood submitted a very important job to DAPS for overnight reproduction. The job was the base Commander's "development plan" for Ft Leonardwood which was sent to the local Congressman and given to visiting dignitaries. The digital files were sent to DAPS and the job was printed in full color. After the first distribution, the project is occasionally reprinted for visiting dignitaries as DAPS retains the digital files, making changes as given by the base Commander's office.
